

Ichiyo School

The Ichiyo School was founded on the idea of creating original ikebana suitable for modern lifestyles and all environments and spaces. Ichiyo style Ikebana encourages personal interpretation within the rules of construction. That combined with imagination is considered as essential to creative designs as are materials and containers. “If flower arranging is to be truly fulfilling, it should be a reflection of oneself.”

