

Sangetsu School

Sangetsu is a school of flower arranging inspired by visionary and master artist, Mokichi Okada, who promoted a spiritual approach to life through beauty. Okada's flower arrangements expressed his great love of nature in their simplicity and naturalness. The five main guidelines which serve as the foundation of the Sangetsu School are: Arrange Flowers Naturally; Arrange Flowers Quickly; Arrange Flowers as if you were Painting a Picture; Arrange Flowers in Harmony; Arrange Flowers with Joy.

